The Sound We Make One-Act Play By Nick Stokes

Set in Tacoma's Fireman's Park, three homeless locals vie for a park bench, the memory of a street legend, and their dignity. This is a play about what was lost, what is acquired, and what can be saved. Like the characters, we must all deal with our own versions of reality for today and keep our dreams and options open for tomorrow.

The Total Experience Gospel Choir Featuring Pastor Pat Wright

Featured every year at the Intiman Theater's Black Nativity, Pat Wright's Total Experience Gospel Choir will inspire and delight you. They've performed before U.S. presidents and around the world. They are one of the Pacific Northwest's natural wonders. They sing gospel, blues, and raise up a joyful noise.
